

Plan Your Visit

When you plan your next visit to St. Robert, make sure you leave enough time to do it all. You'll find shopping, museums, family recreation, military history, and great restaurants! While you're here, don't forget to check out a true piece of American history: an original section of Route 66, which can be seen on what is now Old Route 66 and Z Highway.

The St. Robert Community Center provides citizens and visitors with educational and community activities, like painting classes for adults and children, and over 10 major events like Christmas in the Park, the St. Robert BBQ Cook Off, the Pulaski County Fair, and an Outdoor Sportsman Show.

The City of St. Robert offers a wide variety of retail and commercial areas, including quality hotels and restaurants, as well as family-friendly recreation, and military and historical sites that are enjoyed by thousands of citizens and visitors each year. Our vibrant economy, friendly community, and accessible location make St. Robert a great place to visit and a desired retirement location for many military members and their families. We are proud that so many choose to come grow with us.

ST. ROBERT MISSOURI

The City of St. Robert is a young city dedicated to creating a community that provides a high quality of life for its citizens, military neighbors, and visitors.

Each day, 30,000 vehicles travel along Interstate 44 and Missouri Ave. Our community offers these visitors, whether they are making a pit stop or staying for a few days, over 25 local and national chain hotels, as well as several chain restaurants to choose from. If you're looking for a unique type of cuisine, you'll likely find it here as the city is also home to a number of locally owned restaurants featuring excellent international cuisine.

"The City of St. Robert is a melting pot of many cultures. The city's location next to Fort Leonard Wood has led to entertaining cultural events, wonderful restaurants, and a variety of churches.

Dr. George A. Lauritson
Mayor, City of St. Robert

Our Waynesville-St. Robert Regional Airport provides direct access to the region via commercial airline service. The general public can easily book a ticket on any of the multiple, daily round trip flights between Fort Leonard Wood and St. Louis. The terminal offers free parking, wi-fi, and a rental car kiosk, which makes it easy to fly in and explore the area.

We offer a well cared for 9-hole public golf course and generous walking and biking trails. The city's neighborhood parks, skate park, indoor swimming pool, outdoor aquatic center, museum, and versatile community center mean there's never a dull moment for our visitors and citizens.

Each year, approximately 90,000 visitors make their way to Fort Leonard Wood for military events and graduations. Our community takes great pride in honoring our military members in a variety of ways. You can find several military memorials, plaques, and statues that are worth your time to visit and will undoubtedly enhance your visit to the region.
